

Dear Counsels,

Our services have discovered a serious breach in some data centers, hence the hand-written note.

This situation comes at an unfortunate time, as we are afraid the information we obtained on human rights violations in the mines has been deleted.

We believe the tension rising from the mines and tensions from extreme political groups taking actions might coincide in time.

Please stay ready to intervene on potential legal questions.

Hope this finds you well,
You know who.